Columbus Direct may also pay other parties who refer their customers to us a commission which is a percentage of the premium received by us or an agreed fee. From time to time we may also run promotions that offer incentives such as gift vouchers to customers who recommend their friends or colleagues. With all third party introductions these remunerations are only paid should the customer purchase a policy.

Understanding this insurance

To determine if this insurance is appropriate for your needs, it is important that you carefully read and understand the following sections:

- Product Disclosure Statement which contains information to help you understand this insurance (pages 3-8);
- Words that have special meaning which sets out the defined terms in this insurance (pages 8-9);
- Policy Cover which sets out the cover provided under each section of the policy and the exclusions that apply to each section (pages 9-16);
- General Exclusions that apply to all Sections which sets out what is not covered under this insurance (page 16);
- General Conditions that apply to all Sections which sets out general terms and conditions that apply to this insurance which you and we must comply with. If you do not comply with these, we may refuse to pay or reduce a claim and cancel your policy (page 17);
- 24-hour Medical Emergency Assistance and How to make a Claim - which explain what you must do to make a claim, and set out some important information in respect of medical emergencies (page 18).

Applying for cover

When you apply for this insurance - either by telephone or via the web site - we will collect certain information from you to decide the terms of cover that we will provide. We will confirm with you things such as the period of insurance, the appropriate region of cover, those to be insured, the premium (see below), what cover options, limits and excesses will apply, and any standard terms that have been varied by way of endorsement.

Eligibility

To be eligible for this Policy, you must:

- Have resided in your Country of Residence (either Australia or New Zealand as declared) for at least 3 months and the trip must be departing from and returning there (unless you are applying, by phone, for One-Way Trip cover).
- Be no more than 84 years old at the date of purchase.

You are not eligible for this Policy if you:

- Are already overseas or have commenced your trip.
- Do not intend to return to your Country of Residence (either Australia or New Zealand as declared) at the end of your overseas trip (unless you are applying, by phone, for One-Way Trip cover).
- Are under 18 and are travelling without being accompanied by an adult.
- Are travelling against medical advice.
- Have been given a terminal prognosis.
- Are travelling with the intention to (or in any case do) obtain elective medical treatment (including any cosmetic or dental procedures) or for convalescent care.

The premium payable

You will be told the premium payable when you apply. The premium must be paid by the time we tell you, when you apply. In calculating the premium we take into account a number of factors; these include the destination and duration of your trip, the number of people to be insured and whether you require additional cover for winter sports, other sports and adventure activities or in respect of the Pregnancy Extension. The premium also includes amounts in respect of our actual or estimated obligation to pay stamp duty, GST and any other government taxes or levies (where applicable).

Sports/Adventure and Work Activities Packs

Many amateur sports and leisure activities are covered at no additional cost under this insurance (eg. surfing, bungee jump, parasailing). If you pay an additional premium you can extend cover to additional amateur sports and activities. There are two optional Packs to choose from dependent on which activities you require cover for. A list of the activities covered as standard and those that require an additional premium under either Pack A, or Pack B, are included at Section 15 – Sports/Adventure and Work Activities Packs (from page 14). It should be noted that there are certain more hazardous activities for which we cannot provide cover. These include, but are not limited to, mountaineering normally requiring the use of ropes or guides, caving or potholing, motorsports, boating outside coastal waters and any leisure activity where there is a significant risk of bodily injury (except for those as specified under Section 15, and where any applicable additional premium has been paid). If in doubt you should contact us.

Winter Sports Cover

Provided that you pay the appropriate additional premium you can also choose to be covered under Section 16 Winter Sports Cover which extends cover under all cover sections of this policy to cover certain winter sports activities and provides additional cover for ski equipment, piste closure, delay due to weather conditions and other winter sports related cover.

Pregnancy

Pregnancy of an Insured Person in itself is not considered a Pre-Existing Medical Condition under this policy. There is certain cover for pregnancy under this policy in respect of medical expenses, cancellation and curtailment costs of those to be insured as outlined below. However there is NO cover available under any section of the policy for a pregnancy where any of the following pregnancy exclusions apply:

- o you are travelling against doctor's advice;
- o complications exist with the pregnancy at the time the insurance is purchased or the Trip is booked, whichever is the later;
- o the pregnancy resulted from an assisted reproductive programme;
- o it is a multiple pregnancy.

The following cover is provided as standard for a single uncomplicated pregnancy not arising from an assisted reproductive program and where you are not travelling against doctor's advice:

- unexpected pregnancy-related complications before the 26th week of pregnancy;

Pregnancy Extension Option

If you are travelling beyond the 25th week of pregnancy, and your trip does not extend beyond the 30th week, you can apply for the Pregnancy Extension. Provided we have accepted your application and received the additional premium payable, this will extend your policy to provide the following cover where none of the above pregnancy exclusions apply:

- unexpected pregnancy-related complications from the 26th week of pregnancy;
- childbirth and care of new-born during the trip from the 26th week of pregnancy.

It is important you understand that there is no cover available under this policy for childbirth and care of new-born prior to the 26th week of pregnancy.

(Refer to Section 17 on page 16 for full details).

Working Overseas

Our travel insurance allows you to undertake certain types of paid or voluntary work whilst on your trip. There is no cover for any manual or hazardous work, other than for work activities as specified at Section 15, and where any required additional premium has been paid. Whatever the activity you should note that there is no cover whatsoever for personal liability whilst working, even where the work activity is listed for cover. If you are unsure as to what we would consider manual or hazardous work you should contact us.

One-Way Trip Cover

If you are planning to permanently move overseas, One-Way travel insurance is available (via phone application only) to cover the trip from your current Country of Residence to the country you are relocating to. For the purpose of One-way policies 'Trip' means a holiday or journey outside your Country of Residence which starts from your Home and ends immediately upon arrival at the country of your final destination (as declared to us), during the Period of Insurance stated in the Schedule. Any repatriation covered under Section 2 of the policy will be to the most appropriate destination (being your final country of destination, Country of Residence or country of citizenship) as determined by us. On arrival in that country all cover under this insurance will end.

Travel Advisories

You should refer to the Government travel advisories in respect of the areas you are travelling to as there is no cover under this insurance if you travel to a destination where your Government is advising against travel.

Australia            www.smartraveller.gov.au
New Zealand        www.safetravel.govt.nz

Cooling off period and cancellation rights

Should you purchase a policy from us you will have 19 days from the date of issue of the policy to decide whether it meets all your particular requirements. If you are not satisfied with the insurance for whatever reason we will give you a full refund provided that no claims have been made, you have not commenced your trip and you return your policy documents to us along with written confirmation of your cancellation. After this time you are not able to cancel the policy.

We may cancel a policy where permitted by the Insurance Contracts Act. For example, if you breach your duty of disclosure, make a misrepresentation to us, act fraudulently or breach a term and/or condition of the policy.

Policy extensions

Trip dates can be amended/extended by phone prior to departure. Should you wish to extend your policy after you have commenced your trip you should contact us to request extension application forms which should be completed, signed and returned at least 5 working days prior to the expiry of your existing policy. Any trip can only be extended once, and the maximum term of the extension is 12 months (unless you are over the age of 70, or on a Domestic Trip, in which case the entire trip length is limited to 63 days).

There is no guarantee that you will be granted an extension. In certain circumstances the insurer may refuse an extension, for example where

- o you are over 85 years of age at the time of applying;
- o there has been a change in your health status – including new medical conditions – since your policy was issued;
- o you have made a claim or are aware of a potential claim resulting from your original policy;
- o there has been a change to your personal circumstances which would impact our decision to continue to insure you.

Extensions are priced based on the rates applicable to a new policy at the time of the extension. The policy cover limits and Combined FSG and PDS, including Policy Wording applied to the extension will be that which is effective at the date the extension is issued.

In the event of a covered Travel Delay on your homeward journey the Period of Insurance will be automatically extended to cover you for a maximum of up to seven additional days.

Catastrophe - Certain additional travel and accommodation expenses should you be forced to move as the result of specified catastrophes (eg. flood, tsunami, medical epidemic).

Cover limits

There are cover limits in respect of each section of this insurance. This is the maximum amount we will pay out in respect of any one claim under that section for the duration of the covered trip. These limits are available during your application and will be set down on your Schedule should you purchase. Each individual named on the Schedule is considered separately insured and, as such, the cover limits apply to each.

Conditions and exclusions

As with any insurance there are certain conditions with which you must comply in respect of our agreeing to cover you and in order for us to pay a claim. For example:

- o You must have resided in your country of residence for at least the past 3 months and the trip must be departing from and returning there unless we have agreed to cover a One-Way Trip via a written endorsement;
- o If you require medical treatment in a country with which a reciprocal health care agreement exists then you should ensure you are treated under that agreement where applicable;
- o Any loss of money or personal baggage must be reported to the police within 24 hours of discovery and a written report obtained.

There are also certain events that will not be covered by this insurance. For example we will not pay any claim arising directly or indirectly from:

- o Any personal liability claim in respect of any work whilst away (whether paid, unpaid or voluntary);
- o Professional sports;
- o Acts of war, terrorism or civil unrest (although there is limited cover for medical expenses and hijack claims in this respect).

These are just a few examples and you should read the full insurance wording to make yourself aware of all the conditions and exclusions that apply. If you do not comply with the policy terms and conditions we may refuse to pay or reduce any claim payment and cancel the policy, to the extent permitted by law.

The Excess

Under some sections of this insurance claims will be subject to an excess. This is the first part of each claim that you are responsible for paying. The amounts are specified for each section on your Schedule. In the event you make a claim under more than one section the excess will be payable under each section. As each individual on the Schedule is considered separately insured the excesses will apply to each. We do not offer an excess buy-out option.

Pre-Existing Medical Conditions

Please read this section carefully

This travel insurance is designed to cover you for sudden and unforeseen medical events occurring during the period of insurance. Conditions that exist at the time the policy is issued are not covered unless you have declared ALL such conditions to us and we have agreed to cover them via a written endorsement on the policy.

What is a Pre-Existing Medical Condition?

'Pre-Existing Medical Condition' is a defined term under this policy and means any medical or dental condition, illness, injury, defect or disease (other than common colds or flu), psychological condition or mental disorder:

- a) for which advice or treatment (including medication), or investigation has been received or prescribed in the 12 months prior to the issue of the policy (for Single Trip), or in the 12 months prior to booking your Trip (for Annual Multi-Trip); and/or
- b) which is of a recurring or ongoing nature or any complication directly attributable to it; and/or
- c) of which you are aware, or the symptoms of which you are aware, or could reasonably be expected to have been aware at the time of applying for this insurance.

[Note: Pregnancy of an Insured Person is not considered a Pre-Existing Medical Condition under this policy; however, certain restrictions apply as outlined on page 4.]

Declaring your Medical Conditions

You WILL NOT be covered under this policy for any losses arising directly or indirectly from, affected by, or exacerbated by, any Pre-Existing Medical Conditions unless you have declared ALL such conditions to us and we have agreed to cover them via a written endorsement on the policy.

In any case you will not be covered for such conditions where any of the following applies:

- o You are travelling against medical advice.
- o You have been given a terminal prognosis.
- o You are travelling with the intention to (or in any case do) obtain elective medical treatment (including any cosmetic or dental procedures) or for convalescent care.

To declare your Pre-Existing Medical Conditions you will need to go through our medical screening process. Where we can cover a condition we may require you to pay an additional premium for us to provide cover. Covered conditions will be endorsed via a written endorsement on your policy. Where a condition cannot be covered, you will be advised that cover has been declined and this will also be noted on your policy via a written endorsement.

Where we cannot provide cover for a medical condition you can still purchase a policy however you will not be covered for any losses arising directly or indirectly from, affected by, or exacerbated by that condition. If you have any queries regarding Pre-Existing Medical Conditions you should call us.

Anyone on whom the trip may depend

You should note that there is no cover for any Pre-Existing Medical Condition of anyone on whom the trip may depend (being Close Relative, Business Colleague, travelling companion or person with whom you intend to stay).

Where Medical Conditions are not covered

In circumstances where you are not covered (either in relation to your own Pre-Existing Medical Conditions or those of someone on whom your trip depends) you should give consideration to the fact that you would have to cover the cost of any losses arising directly or indirectly from, affected by, or exacerbated by those conditions. This could include overseas medical expenses, the cost of emergency medical repatriation or the costs associated with cancelling or curtailing a trip, plus any other related expenses.

Other important matters

Under your policy there are certain rights and responsibilities which you and we have. The following is an overview of some you should be aware of, however you should also read the insurance documentation for full details.

24/7 Medical Emergency Assistance

Our travel insurance includes 24-hour worldwide access to our emergency medical assistance network. It is important to note that there are certain circumstances where you are required to contact the assistance company (eg. if you are hospitalised or need to curtail your trip). Full contact details are contained later in this document (see 24-hour Medical Emergency Assistance at page 18).

How to make a claim

Specialist claims handlers administer claims under this policy. Any occurrence or loss which may give rise to a claim should therefore be reported to Intana Global (the appointed claims handlers) as soon as possible and in any event within 31 days of the end of your trip. For full details refer to the How to Make a Claim section on page 18.

General Advice Warning

The advice provided by us or the insurer is of a general nature only and does not take into account your personal objectives, financial situation or needs. You should therefore consider its appropriateness in respect of these issues when considering whether to purchase. You should read all the insurance documentation carefully before deciding whether to purchase the insurance. You need to decide whether the limits, type and level of cover are appropriate for you and will cover any potential loss you may encounter. If you do not adequately insure yourself, you may have to bear the uninsured proportion of any loss yourself.

Your Duty of Disclosure

Before you enter into a policy with us, you have a duty under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 to disclose to us every matter that you know, or a reasonable person in the circumstances could be expected to know, is relevant to our decision whether to accept the risk of the insurance and, if so, on what terms.

When you first apply we will ask you certain questions to decide whether we will accept the risk of the insurance and, if so, on what terms and to calculate the premium. When answering those questions you must:

- give us honest and complete answers;
- tell us everything you know; and
- tell us everything that a reasonable person in the circumstances could be expected to know.

If you renew, extend, vary, reinstate or replace your policy, your duty is to disclose to us before that time, every matter known to you, or a reasonable person in the circumstances could be expected to know, is relevant to our decision whether to accept the risk of the insurance and, if so, on what terms.

Your duty does not require you to disclose any matter that:

- diminishes our risk;
- is of common knowledge;
- we know or, in the ordinary course of business, ought to know;
- we tell you we do not need to know.

Who does the Duty of Disclosure apply to?

The duty of disclosure applies to you and everyone who is an insured under the contract of insurance.

What happens if you or they do not comply with the Duty of Disclosure?

If you, or they, fail to comply with the duty of disclosure, we may be entitled to reduce our liability under your policy in respect of a claim or cancel it. If the non-disclosure is fraudulent, we may be able to treat your policy as if it was never effected.

Confirming Transactions

A Certificate of Insurance will be issued once you have completed your online/phone application and you have paid the appropriate amount. This comprises the Schedule and this Combined FSG and PDS, including Policy Wording. If you want to confirm a transaction under the policy – for example whether the policy has been issued – you may contact us by phone, email or in writing.

How we protect your privacy

We require personal information in order to properly address your insurance needs. We maintain a record of your personal profile and are committed to ensuring the privacy of the personal information provided to us. You have the right to seek access to your personal information on request and notify us of any updates that are required. A copy of our full Privacy Policy is available at our website or on request.

How we handle complaints

Information on how we handle complaints relating to this insurance or the services provided to you is located on page 2 of this Combined FSG and PDS, including policy wording.

General Insurance Code of Practice

The Insurance Council of Australia Limited has developed the General Insurance Code of Practice (the Code) which is a self-regulatory code for adoption by insurers. Both Columbus Direct and Lloyd's support the Code and embrace its objectives of raising the standards of practice and service in the insurance industry. This policy is compliant with the Code with the exception of claims adjusted outside of Australia, which fall outside the scope of the Code. However, in setting service levels for those claims the standards laid out in the Code have been adopted. Lloyd's is a member of the Insurance Council of New Zealand. Both Lloyd's and Columbus Direct support its Fair Insurance Code.

Updating our Product Disclosure Statement

We may need to update this PDS from time to time if certain changes occur where required and permitted by law. We will issue you with a new PDS or a Supplementary PDS or other compliant document to update the relevant information except in limited cases. Where the information is not something that would be materially adverse from the point of view of a reasonable person deciding whether to buy this insurance, we may issue you with notice of this information in other forms or keep an internal record of such changes (you can get a paper copy free of charge by calling us).

Several Liability Notice LSW1001

The subscribing underwriters' obligations under contracts of insurance to which they subscribe are several and not joint and are limited solely to the extent of their individual subscriptions. The subscribing underwriters are not responsible for the subscriptions of any co-subscribing underwriter who for any reason does not satisfy all or part of its obligations.

Service of Suit Clause

The insurers (being certain underwriters at Lloyd's) hereon agree that:

- (i) In the event of a dispute arising under this insurance, the insurers at the request of the Insured will submit to the jurisdiction of any competent Court in the Commonwealth of Australia. Such dispute shall be determined in accordance with the law and practice applicable in such Court.
- (ii) Any summons notice or process to be served upon the insurers may be served upon Lloyd's General Representative in Australia (whose address is Level 9, 1 O'Connell Street, Sydney NSW 2000, Australia) who has authority to accept service and to enter an appearance on the insurers' behalf, and who is directed at the request of the Insured to give a written undertaking to the Insured that he will enter an appearance on the insurers' behalf.
- (iii) If a suit is instituted against any one of the underwriters, all underwriters hereon will abide by the final decision of any such Court or any competent Appellate Court.

Words that have special meaning

These words appear throughout the policy and have the special meanings as defined here.

Carrier means an airline, railway operator, shipping/cruise company or coach operator (excluding taxis) operated under a licence for the purpose of transporting passengers.

Close Business Colleague means an associate of yours at the same business with whom you work closely and resident in your Country of Residence whose absence from work necessitates the cancellation or curtailment of your Trip as certified by a senior director of that business.

Close Relative means any of the following who is under 85 years of age and who is resident in your Country of Residence: your husband or wife (or de facto partner with whom you are living permanently at the same address), child, parent, grandparent, brother, sister, parent-in-law, son/daughter-in-law, grandchild or fiancé(e).
